

CECIL B. CARROLL

Family Scholarship

Named in honor of a family that has contributed much to the Jacksonville business, education, religious, and civic communities, the Cecil B. Carroll Family Scholarship is awarded to qualified high school seniors from the metropolitan area of Jacksonville, Florida. This area includes Duval, Nassau, Baker, Clay and St. Johns counties. Applicants should demonstrate strong academic performance and display the true meaning of citizenship both in their schools and in their communities. Recipients are chosen and grant amounts determined by a Scholarship Committee.

Scholarships shall be made as outright grants without repayment expected from the recipients. The applicants chosen to receive these scholarships will receive a letter of notification and congratulations from the Scholarship Committee. This letter will outline the procedure for receiving the funds. All grants are paid directly to the school of the recipient's choice.

Scholarship recipients and their families will also be invited to attend a special worship service at Southside Baptist Church to be recognized.
